This information is given to natural persons who access and consult the site of C.G.M. S.R.L., pursuant to art. 13 d. lgs. June 30, 2003 No. 196 - "Code regarding the protection of personal data" and art. 13 GDPR 679/16 - "European regulation on the protection of personal data". Identity of the owner This website is managed by MASSIMINO ELENA, owner of the treatment of C.G.M. IMPIANTI S.R.L.S. based in VIA SAVIGLIANO N. X, 12030 - MONASTEROLO DI SAVIGLIANO (CN). The Data Controller guarantees the security, confidentiality and protection of the personal data in their possession, at any stage of the processing of the same. The personal data collected are used in compliance with the legislative decree 196/2003 and the GDPR 679/16. The DPO has not been designated. Purpose of processing The computer systems and software procedures used to operate this website acquire, during their normal operation, some personal data whose transmission is implicit in the use of internet communication protocols. This is information that is not collected to be associated with identified interested parties, but which by their very nature could, through processing and association with data held by third parties, allow users to be identified. This category of data includes the IP addresses or domain names of the computers used by users who connect to the site, the URI (Uniform Resource Identifier) addresses of the requested resources, the time of the request, the method used to submit the request to the server, the size of the file obtained in response, the numerical code indicating the status of the response given by the server (successful, error ..) and other parameters relating to the operating system and the user's computer environment. These data are used only to obtain anonymous statistical information on the use of the site and to check its correct functioning and are deleted immediately after processing. The data could be used to ascertain responsibility in case of hypothetical computer crimes against the site. Legal basis of the processing The use of technical cookies is a processing carried out in the legitimate interest of the Data Controller; the use of analytical cookies is carried out with the consent of the interested party. Data recipients The Data Controller does not communicate any personal identification data or information to third parties except, possibly and as strictly necessary, to those who intervene as suppliers for the provision of services relating to the management of the website and for the consequent management of the contractual relationship and the related administrative obligations. Data transfer The Data Controller does not transfer personal data to third countries or to international organizations. Data retention The Data Controller keeps the data for the time necessary to obtain anonymous statistical information on the use of the site and to check its correct functioning. The data is deleted immediately after processing. Rights of the interested party With reference to art. 7 of Legislative Decree 196/2003 and art. 15 - right of access, 16 - right of rectification, 17 - right to cancellation, 18 - right to limitation of processing, 20 - right to portability, 21 - right to object, 22 right to object to the automated decision-making process of the GDPR 679 / 16, the interested party exercises his rights by writing to the Data Controller at the above address, or by email, specifying the subject of his request, the right he intends to exercise and attaching a photocopy of an identity document certifying the legitimacy of the request. Withdrawal of consent With reference to art. 23 of Legislative Decree 196/2003 and art. 6 of the GDPR 679/16, the interested party can revoke the consent at any time. Proposal of complaint The interested party has the right to lodge a complaint with the supervisory authority of the state of residence. Refusal to provide data The interested party may refuse to give the Data Controller his navigation data. To do this, you must disable cookies by following the instructions provided by the browser in use. Disabling cookies can make navigation and use of the site's features worse. Automated decision-making processes The Data Controller does not carry out treatments that consist of automated decision-making processes. Types of Cookies Cookies are information entered on the user's browser when you visit a website or use a social network with your PC, smartphone or tablet. Each cookie contains various data such as, for example, the name of the server it comes from, a numerical identifier, etc.

Cookies can remain in the system for the duration of a session (i.e. until the browser used for web browsing is closed) or for long periods and may contain a unique identification code. Technical cookies Some cookies are used to perform computer authentication, session monitoring and storage of specific information on users who access a web page. These cookies, so-called technical, are often useful, because they can make browsing and use of the web faster and faster, because for example they intervene to facilitate certain procedures when you shop online, when you log in to restricted access areas or when a website automatically recognizes the language you usually use. A particular type of cookie, called analytics, are then used by website managers to collect information, in aggregate form, on the number of users and how they visit the site, and then process general statistics on the service and its use. Profiling cookies Other cookies can instead be used to monitor and profile users while browsing, study their movements and web browsing or consumption habits (what they buy, what they read, etc.), also for the purpose of sending advertising of targeted and personalized services (so-called Behavioral Advertising). In this case we are talking about profiling cookies. It may happen that a web page contains cookies from other sites and contained in various elements hosted on the page itself, such as advertising banners, images, videos, etc. These are so-called third-party cookies, which are usually used for profiling purposes. Considering the particular invasiveness that profiling cookies (especially third-party ones) can have in the private sphere of users, European and Italian legislation require the user to be adequately informed on their use and express their validity. consent to the insertion of cookies on your terminal Cookies used The site <https://www.CGMSISTEMI.COM> uses cookies to make the services of the site simpler and more efficient for the user who views the web pages. Users who access the site will receive some very small amounts of information in their devices in use, whether they are computers or mobile devices, in the form of small text files, the "cookies" in fact, stored in the directories used by their browser. The cookies used by <https://www.CGMSISTEMI.COM> allow you to: - memorize browsing preferences, - avoid re-entering the same information several times, - analyze the use of the services and content provided by the site to optimize its browsing experience. The site <https://www.CGMSISTEMI.COM> uses Google Analytics or Shynistat. In this case, the information generated by the cookie on the use of the site is transmitted to Google Inc. or Triboo Data Analytics srl and stored on its servers. These data recipients use this information for the purpose of producing reports on site activities, intended for the Data Controller or subjects appointed by it. You can refuse the provision of navigation data by selecting the appropriate setting on the browser. In this regard, please refer to the information published on the Google website <https://www.google.it/intl/it/policies/privacy/> and the additional browser component for deactivating Google Analytics <https://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout?hl=it> or https://www.shinystat.com/it/informativa\_privacy\_generale\_app.html.
